OTHER EVENTS DURING THE MONTH OF JULY

REMINDER TO PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

All parents are kindly reminded to report to the school office for any clarification and issues.

There is a parents pass issued from the school office and with that you can visit your class teachers. However, if you need early departures for your child please fill an early departure form issued from the school office.

Any queries and enquires please walk into the office and you will be explained better about events and issues.

Channel of communication for all parents and guardians is first to the school office then to Ministry. We are aiming to solve all your issues at school level rather than going to the Ministry of Education.

Please feel free to walk up to the school office at any time convenient to you and raise your concerns. Remember at times we [parents] get frustrated with things and issues, but there are always solutions to every problem. We want to create a friendly and conducive atmosphere for every one at the school.

We treat everyone as equal and fair at this institution

TIPS FOR PARENTS

- ♦ See that children reach school and home on time.
- ♦ Check exercise and activity books for your children daily.
- ♦ Homework books to be checked every evening.
- ♦ Please see that children behave in the bus while travelling . We are doing our level best, however, more effort is needed from your end as well.
- ♦ Have regular discussion with your children at home .
